L O N D O N :

Printed for T. CARNAN, at Number 65, in St. PAUL's Church-Yard.

M DCC LXXVIII.

Ⓢ This Work is entered, according to Act of Parliament, in the Register Book of the STATIONERS COMPANY; and whoever pirates it, or any Part of it, will be prosecuted. This Caution is given to those who have plundered the former Editions, which were also entered, as Invasion will no longer be submitted to.

The BOOK-BINDER is desired to guard the Map in the Middle; as by that Means it will open without the Trouble of unfolding, on which Account it was reduced to the Size of the Book.

P R E F A C E.

THE Utility of an Accurate Description of the Roads, is so obvious to every Person who travels, as not to require any laboured Proof; and, as the Preference which the following Work claims before any other of the Kind hitherto published, will be evident on the slightest Comparison, we shall decline enlarging on that Head, and only lay before the Reader what is just necessary by Way of Explanation.

By the Plan adopted in executing this Work, it contains all the new Roads down to the present Time, with the Alterations and Improvements made in the Old; and exhibits at first View, the Distance of each City, Town, or Remarkable Village, from London, with a particular Account of the Roads leading to it, measured from the different Standards in London, according to the Mile-Stones on each Road, and arranged in the following Order, viz.

1. The Kent Roads, measured from London Bridge.
2. The Croydon, Ryegate, and Epsom Roads, from Westminster Bridge.
3. The Kingston Road, from the Stones End in the Borough.
4. The Brentford Road, from Hyde-Park-Corner.
5. The Uxbridge and Edgware Roads, from Tyburn Turnpike.
6. The Barnet Road, from Hicks's Hall.
7. The Ware Road, from Shoreditch Church.
8. The Essex Road, from Whitechapel Church.

The Measurements, which are taken in Miles, Halves, and Quarters of Miles, are arranged in two Columns, the first giving the Distance from one City, Town, or Village to the next; the second, the Number of Miles from the Commencement of the Road. And (for the farther Amusement of the Traveller) at the End of each Road is given, a brief Account of whatever is worthy of Observation; such as Parks, Seats, Castles, Ruins, &c.

To find the Road from London to any City, Town, or Remarkable Village, in England or Wales, look for the Name of the Place in the Index to the Roads from London, and the Figure opposite to it refers to the Page in which is that Part of the Road containing the Place looked for; thus, from London to Durham, the Index directs you to Page 113, where you find Durham with its Distance from London, &c. though the Description of the Road in which it is situated (being that from London to Edinburgh) begins in Page 110, and ends in Page 114.

In describing the lesser Roads branching out from the greater, the last Remarkable Place on the great Road, or the Spot where the lesser turns off, is first given, with a Reference to the Page in which you will find the Road so far as to that Place; and afterwards the Branch is continued: as for Instance, to find the Road from London to Chertsey, in Surry, the Index refers you to Page 33, where you find it in the following Form, viz.

To Hounslow, p. 21
Feltham,	Midd.	$3\frac{1}{2}$	$13\frac{1}{4}$
Littleton		$3\frac{3}{4}$	17
Chertsey,	Surry	3	20

By which it appears you are referred to Page 21 for this Road, as far as Hounslow, (the last Remarkable Place on the great Road) from thence the Remainder of the Road to Chertsey is given after the above Form in Page 33, as directed by the Index. In like Manner for the Roads from London to Askrig, the Index directs to Page 120, from whence you are referred to Page 112 for one Road as far as Boroughbridge, and to Page 106 for another as far as Settle, the Continuation of each Road being given in Page 120.—These References are made Use of in order to prevent the numberless Reptitions which otherwise would unavoidably occur in a Work of this Kind.

In looking for the Cross-Roads, or Roads in Scotland, Recourse must likewise be had to their respective Indexes, which are so plain as to require no farther Explanation than what is given with them in their proper Places.

Having thus, to the best of our Abilities, supplied the Traveller with a full and accurate Description of a much greater Collection of Roads than was ever before attempted; yet, as the different Routs which Travellers may have Occasion to take are almost infinite, and consequently not comprisable in a Volume of this Size; we have, in order to complete our Plan, compiled, and published separately, a Second Part to this Work, entitled, A TRAVELLING DICTIONARY; or, Alphabetical Tables of the Distances of all the Cities; Borough, Market, and Sea-Port Towns, in Great Britain, from each other, &c. By these Tables, the Traveller will find the Compass he must make to visit any Place or Places which he may be desirous of taking in the Course of his Journey; and will likewise be enabled, at setting out, to form an Estimate of his Time and Expence, by ascertaining the Number of Miles he must travel, with the greatest Exactness, should the Tour he proposes to make be ever so much about, or irregular. Those who have experienced how varying, and often contradictory, have been the best Accounts they could procure of the Distances of Places on their Journey, and how vexatious in their Consequences, will readily acknowledge the Utility of a Work of this Kind.

The Travelling Dictionary being printed on the same Size as the Description of the Roads, the two bound together make a complete Travelling Companion.

The Distances from the Obelisk in Fleet Street to the Standards in London, from which the different Roads are measured.

The Publisher returns his most grateful Acknowledgments to those Gentlemen who communicated the Corrections and Additions with which this Edition is improved; and, as a Work of this Kind must be ever subject to Alterations, from the New Roads continually making, any Improvements or Corrections for another Edition, that are transmitted to T. Carnan, at Number 65, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, will be duly attended to, and carefully inserted.

THE DIRECT AND

PRINCIPAL CROSS ROADS

OF

Four; widelicet, by Berwick, Coldstream, Kelfo, and Carlisle.

The different Roads from London to Edinburgh are given

The Roads from Edinburgh, to Berwick, to Cornhill, to Kelso, and to Carlisle, are comprehended in the Description of the Roads from London to Edinburgh, already given in p. 110, &c.
